BLOCK THE KAHN BILL

PLAN OF THE SENATORS
TO CHANGE MEASURE

Probable that Present Law Will Be Reenacted Without Any Radical Features—Many Are Hostile.

Washington, March 24.—The Mitchell-Kahn exclusion bill was discussed at length by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs today. Representatives Kahn, Combs, Needham and Woods of California were on hand by invitation. The committee had before it a copy of the bill as proposed to be amended by the sub-committee. Objection was made by Representative Kahn to many changes proposed by the sub-committee. In some places the sub-committee had omitted certain language from the bill on the ground that it was redundant and Kahn showed that the language in question was taken verbatim from the existing law. In one case the sub-committee tried to improve certain phraseology and it was shown it had been taken literally from the Gresham treaty. The whole effect of the sub-committee changes was to emasculate and practically destroy the Kahn bill.

There was considerable hostility manifested among some members of the committee. They received the protests of the Californians with impatience, and by the tenor of their questions revealed a desire to defeat the whole object sought to be accomplished. Other members of the committee, it is said, were friendly and gave assurance of hearty support. No conclusion was reached by the conference. The whole matter was taken under advisement.

Representative Kahn said, after the meeting, that while considerable hostility existed, he was satisfied that there was a majority friendly to the bill, and that most of the matter omitted by the sub-committee would be restored and the bill would be reported substantially as desired by the California delegation. The sailor clause, however, will be omitted.

From all that can be learned at this stage of the proceedings, it appears likely that the Chinese bill will be reported and acted upon in the House before it comes up in the Senate. Speaker Henderson and others are anxious to get the bill out of the way. The program as outlined by several Senators is that the House shall pass the Mitchell-Kahn bill, weakened possibly, but still substantially as drawn up. Meantime, the Senate is to discuss oleomargarine for an indefinite time, postponing the discussion on the Chinese bill to the last possible moment. Then either by a favorable report on Proctor's new bill, or by offering it as a substitute for the Mitchell-Kahn bill, it is proposed to pass it and sidetrack the stronger bill. Thus, toward May 5, the date of the expiration of the present law, it is hoped the two bills will be in conflict and go to conference. Some Senate leaders hope then, by reason of the shortness of time, to force the House conferees to give way and accept the Proctor bill, merely reenacting the present laws.

This program was outlined by a leading Republican Senator, and may be taken as representing the actual desire of a number of the leaders, even though they may not publicly criticize the Mitchell-Kahn bill.

PROVE BURR PATRIOT

New York, March 24.—If there is any trustworthy medium in New York who can get into communication with the spirit of the late Aaron Burr it would be worth her time to interview him on his opinion of the newly formed Aaron Burr Legion. He was credited with having a keen wit, and although he was something of an egotist his remarks on the Burr Legion could not help being vastly interesting.

The Aaron Burr Legion is to consist of a central body, to be known as the Grand Camp, and auxiliary associations, to be designated as outposts. The object of the legion is to secure and print a list of all the portraits of "Colonel Aaron Burr, his wife, daughter, father, grandfather and each of his relations, as the Grand Camp may direct," and to "print a similar list of all memoranda, original letters or manuscripts or copies of the same," also to refute calumnies, prove Burr a patriot and have suitable memorials erected in New York "to Burr, his beloved daughter, Theodosia, and his grandson and namesake, Aaron Burr Alston."

STRIKE CALLED OFF.

New York, March 27.—There is no likelihood of a strike in the anthracite district this year. The miners have formulated their demands and the operators will probably meet them half way.

The announcement was made last night on the best authority after Senator Hanna's conference with J. P. Morgan, and the threatened trouble will be averted mainly through the efforts of the two men who were the chief factors in settling the big strike in the Presidential campaign of 1900.

SIX WEEKS OF RAIN ON ISLAND OF MAUI

Waikuku, April 5.—It is now almost six weeks since the rain made its presence felt on Maui this year, and the end is not in sight. This present storm has therefore broken all previous records within the memory of the present generation, but its beauty is that it is not half as severe as the storm of last year when the Waikuku sugar company, suffered considerable damage in flumes, etc., and the Manalea road washed out in many places.

It rained steadily ever since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but it stopped a little today. Wahee roads suffered the most during last night's heavy rains, the water in some places reaching the horses' bellies. The Waikuku road is in the same plight. The Lahaina stage got stuck in the mud on the Waikuku road at noon today and a new rig from Waikuku was sent over to transfer the passengers to town.

EASTER ON MAUI

Waikuku, April 5.—Easter Day services at the Waikuku Anglican church last Sunday were well attended. The little church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted ferns and creeping vines, presenting a unique appearance. As the sun shone brightly during the greater part of the day, especially in the morning, the communion services at 7 a. m. and morning prayer and communion at 11 o'clock were both well attended. Rev. Canon Ault officiated in all the services. One of the most pleasant features of the day was the cornet accompaniment by C. D. Lufkin of the Waikuku National Bank, his playing somewhat adding vim to the singing of the Easter hymns by the congregation. Rev. Wm. Ault preached a very able sermon relating to the resurrection.

PASSION PLAY HAS RAISED A RUMPUS

New York, March 24.—The production of Clay Greene's passion play by the members of the Lambs' Club at the Garrick Theater Sunday evening has stirred up a hornets' nest among the theatrical managers and religious folks. It seems William A. Brady had plans on foot for its production on a splendid scale and the theatrical trust is mad clear through because Brady succeeded in making the Lambs' Club the medium for a trial of the play in the Garrick Theater, which is controlled by the professionally detested trust. Alf Hayman, who is a sort of representative of Charles Frohman, lost no time in telegraphing to him in London, and the Lambs' Club will no longer have the privilege of using the Garrick Theater for Sunday evening entertainments.

Oscar Hammerstein had also planned for a magnificent production at the Victoria Theater, but the religious element has raised a storm of disapproval, and it looks now as though the "Passion Play" will entirely subside.

CORLISS FAILS TO CARRY HIS POINT

Washington, March 28.—Representative Corliss of Michigan was given a hearing before the House Committee on Judiciary today on his resolutions directing the Attorney General to institute proceedings against the Commercial Cable Company for alleged combination with other companies. Corliss declared that there had been a deliberate violation of the laws against combination, and that the effect was to advance the cost of cable messages on the Atlantic 12 1/2 cents a word.

Chairman Ray and members of the committee asked a number of questions which developed rather sharp division over the resolution. Corliss said the matter had not been brought to the attention of the Attorney General, so far as he knew, but he desired that the committee take cognizance of the facts, which showed an offense against the law, and refer the subject to the Attorney General for his investigation and action.

Chairman Ray said the resolutions amounted to a direction by Congress to the Attorney General to do his duty when there was nothing to show he was remiss in his duty or knew anything about the matter. He suggested that Corliss should go first to the Attorney General.

Corliss remarked that he had not come to be advised as to what he should do, but merely to be heard on a statement of facts. If there was to be no action he desired to have the committee share in the responsibility for non-action.

The committee then went into executive session and unanimously reported against the resolution on the ground that Corliss had not presented a case calling for the action proposed.

SQUASH COURT FAD.

Washington, March 27.—Commissioner General of Immigration Powderly, whose term of office expires soon, will be tendered some other position in the Government service. The statement was made today from an authentic source that the President has decided to provide for him elsewhere. A number of Mr. Powderly's friends have talked with the President in his behalf, and pleaded extenuating circumstances, in many of the matters of which he has been criticized.

JOLTING THE JOITS

SAN FRANCISCO HORSE OWNERS HAVE NEW GAME

Rival to Ping Pong and Chuting the Chutes is Inaugurated by Board of Work for Our Public.

San Francisco, March 28.—Jolting the Joits is the latest pastime invented and patented by the Board of Public Works of the city of San Francisco. Jolting the Joits is meant to rival Ping Pong and "Chuting" the Chutes. There is nothing like it in any other well-regulated city in the great Union. Consequently the patentee is pardonably elated with its new offering to the lovers of genuine sport.

Jolting the Joits is enjoyed by the drivers of San Francisco, for whom, indeed, the exciting game is allowed to remain in existence. The grounds upon which Jolting the Joits is enjoyed are on Van Ness and Golden Gate avenues.

A description of the game is necessary: Owners of valuable horses and handsome vehicles before leaving their homes to revel in the new sport usually take out an accident insurance policy, for there is no telling what may happen.

They then proceed to the avenues designated and the sport commences. The exact spots are at the various crossings. Indeed there is no crossing on Van Ness avenue that is level with the general roadbed, and consequently the wobbly game of Jolting the Joits is uninterrupted, and, more, it is attended with a danger to the neck of the horse and the spinal column of the driver and occupants of the carriages, buggies and wagons, that meets exactly with the exciting conditions looked for.

The Board of Works is just as generous with the Joits on Golden Gate avenue, for in that locality matters assume an even more exciting condition. Instead of the hunchback crossings, drivers have the privilege of seeing their horses take a leap and often a stumble over the depressions in the asphalt that in some way resemble a fox hunting scene. It is invigorating sport, is Jolting the Joits, in the much traveled localities, where it occurs every day in the week, Sunday included. It is an exhilarating, exciting sight.

But there are some who take exception to the conditions, and in no uncertain voice condemn the gentlemen who hold office and who are receiving the people's money to see to it that the thoroughfares of the city are kept in perfect order; that they be not a danger to the driver or the pedestrian; that the necks of the people are not put in danger of a wrench, and that horses valuable and otherwise, may draw their load without the possibility of a serious spill.

MAUI MAKING READY

Waikuku, April 5.—Invitations are now out for the dedication ceremonies to be held at the new Castle Hall of Aloha Lodge, No. 3, K. of P. at Waikuku on Thursday evening, April 17. The exercises will open at 8 o'clock, to be followed by a grand ball. That will be one of the greatest events in Waikuku during the week, and the expected presence of the Hawaiian band will greatly add to the enjoyment of the evening. A large turnout is expected as already a large number of the fair sex are making plans to be present on that auspicious occasion. A large number of the leading citizens in the outside districts, especially Lahaina, Hana and Makawao, will be present.

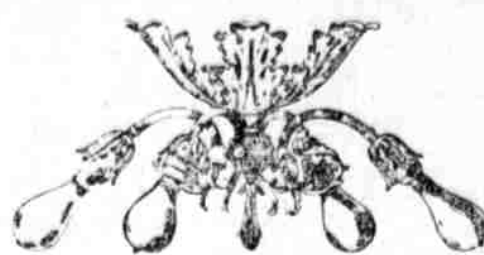

MAUI BENEFIT CONCERT.

Waikuku, April 5.—The concert by the pupils of the Maunaloa Seminary, Paia, for the benefit of the school, has been postponed for one week, until next Friday evening, the 11th, weather permitting. Several of the young ladies interested in the institution have already disposed of a large number of tickets in and around Waikuku.
